

"Since I came to Cairo, and in the first days of trying to find an apartment for rent, the real estate agent said there was an apartment in 'Azbet El-Nakhl.' I went with my children, and as soon as we entered the apartment, I was attacked/raped and beaten.

I couldn't go to the police station because I didn't even know his name. There was a woman cleaning the stairs, but she was afraid to help me. She only opened the door for me and let me escape."