

Chapter Three: Insurance

Article 16

A. Insurance with the institution is mandatory for both employers and employees, and the insured person shall not bear any portion of the insurance contributions except as otherwise provided by law.

B. If the insured person is employed by more than one employer, contributions shall be calculated separately for each employment. Upon the insured person's final termination of coverage under this law, each employment shall be treated separately in accordance with the provisions of Article 55.

C. The provisions of the preceding paragraph shall also apply to an insured person who is enrolled in more than one insurance institution.
