

Sabira:

"They demolished the houses, and they (the police) took me, a woman, and detained me for a week, until people intervened and mediated to get us out, saying, 'Enough, release the women.'"